

About the CBA

YLS

The Cincinnati Bar Association Young Lawyers Section consists of more than 800 young lawyers in the tri-state area.

The purpose of the CBA Young Lawyers Section is to stimulate the interest of young lawyers and new members of the Cincinnati Bar Association in the objectives of the Association, to carry on activities which will be of assistance to young lawyers, to educate and inform the legal community and to provide community service opportunities for its members.

For more information you can go to our website at www.cincybar.org or contact Haley Fritz at (513)699-1406 or hmfritz@cincybar.org

Join Us!

The Cincinnati Bar Center
225 E. Sixth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202
(513) 381-8213

Benefits of Membership:

Enrich Your Career.

Consider attending a committee meeting or social event, become a mentor or volunteer to enhance your career. Get involved and lead through service while improving your legal career and professional network!

Network.

Connect with your peers at the CBA. More than 50 committees are open to members only. Attend professional development and social events throughout the year and stay in touch with Linked In pages open only to committee members.

Community Outreach.

The Greater Cincinnati area benefits from the support of our members in projects that include Mentoring, Mock Trial, the Run For Kids and dozens of other efforts.

Personal Development.

Find yourself transitioning? Take advantage of the Online Career Center and Career Connection on our website.

Legal Resources.

The CBA can assist you in solving a legal, ethical or other questions. You have access to helpful links with articles on local courts, attorney and judges codes of conduct, and guidance on how to have a good attorney-client relationship.

YLS Committees

CLE The CLE Committee plans the bi-weekly “No Brown Bag” one-hour CLE programs. Its mission is to provide young lawyers and other members of the Cincinnati Bar with high-quality legal seminars.

Community Service Members of the Community Service Committee organize hands-on volunteer events that allow YLS members to give back to the community while socializing and networking with other members of the Cincinnati Bar Association and the other young professionals in the Greater Cincinnati community.

Membership Membership related events encourage newly admitted young lawyers to join YLS and learn more about the professional expectations of the legal community.

Mentoring The Mentoring Committee engages young lawyers in the positive development of Cincinnati youth through partnerships with local schools and agencies committed to this same agenda.

Mock Trial YLS plans and hosts the high school Mock Trial competition in Hamilton County. The CBA’s responsibility includes providing judges for the competition and organizing the event. The Mock Trial program is a national competition.

Public Relations Timely communication about YLS events, activities and initiatives to the membership, Cincinnati Bar Association, and other young professional groups, through the quarterly E-newsletter, e-mails and promotional materials.

Run for Kids The Run for Kids committee plans and organizes an annual “Superhero Run For Kids,” a 5K run and fitness walk which benefits ProKids, a local organization that advocates on behalf of abused and neglected children in the legal system. The race has proven highly successful in past years and the event continues to grow.

Social The Social Committee plans and organizes social and networking events for young lawyers to encourage interactions and to engage with members of the Cincinnati Bar and other Cincinnati young professionals.

Stay Connected.

With quality CLE.

Keep up-to-date on the latest legal developments with more than 100 seminars presented locally. As a member, you can save up to $180 on 12 hours of CLE this coming year. Members also save 20% on online CLE programming.

With the legal directory.

Your membership includes the new Legal Directory, delivered directly to you each spring. This best seller puts all the members of the local legal community literally at your fingertips.

With CBA publications.

Your monthly copy of the CBA Report is delivered directly to you each month with the latest in the legal community. You also receive regular e-mail communications about events and other CBA news.

Interested? GREAT!

Law Students: free

First year attorneys: $35

Name: _____

Email: _____

Check the committees that you are interested in joining.

CLE

Mock Trial

Community Service

Public Relations

Membership

Run for Kids

Mentoring

Social